

GETS VERDICT FOR $4,000
FOR LOSS OF WIFE'S LOVE.John A. Walsh Wins His Suit Against Frank P. Sheehy of the Bronx.

A verdict of $4,000 was returned to-day by a jury in the Queens County Supreme Court in favor of John A. Walsh, an insurance broker of No. 31 Hunterpoint avenue, Long Island City, for the alienation of his wife's affections. He had demanded $100,000 damages.

During the trial yesterday he testified that it took him years to locate her with Sheehy after she left his home. At one time his wife returned to him for nine months, but went away again.

Sheehy's counsel contended that the plaintiff was insane from his troubles and had already sued several other persons on a similar charge. When the verdict was read to-day Sheehy's counsel asked that it be set aside.

"This man's story," said Justice Kelly, "of meeting the defendant with his wife after trailing them to a saloon, and his subsequent endeavors, was the basis of the jury's verdict. The jurors believed his testimony, and I see no reason for setting the verdict aside. I will allow you a week to file objections."

The announcement caused surprise among Sheehy's friends in the Bronx. He had told them he did not even know Mrs. Walsh and had met the plaintiff for the first time in the courtroom.
